Mr. ASA Mr French seconded the motion, which was adopted.

Mr. Slummon reported that he had interviewed the Secy of the Duckers Club and was informed that many other bodies, this Club only had one want:- want of money. Practice had been going on, & members had competed at Galas, & the secretary asked for more time, at the consideration of the Association till his Club could get into better circumstances.

Mr. Gentles moved that the Duckers Club be dealt with in a similar fashion to the R.P. Church and their name removed from the Roll. Mr.
French seconded.

Mr. Wallace moved that they be given more time & that the amount of their subscription be reduced to 7/6 in consideration of Mr. Slummon's Report.
