SAFETY SWIMMING POND.

North Berwick's Safety Swimming Pond has been openly acknowledged as the finest bathing pool in the Country.

Delightfully situated to the east of the Harbour, it is securely sheltered by the Plattcock Rocks on the north, which supply a natural vantage point from which the bathers may be viewed.

In addition to this natural amphitheatre, comfortable seating accommodation for hundreds of spectators has been erected all around the Pond, where in the glorious sunshine visitors may enjoy the antics of the bathers all day.

No charge is made for this seating accommodation, and it is understood that North Berwick is the only Swimming Pool in the Country where the spectators are admitted free of charge.

Fully qualified instructors are always on hand to give Swimming Lessons at very reasonable charges.

The dressing-room accommodation is handsomely commodious, and sufficient to avoid any congestion. Mixed bathing may be indulged in, and it is possible to bathe at almost all hours.

Galas are held during the Season; swimmers of even international repute are attracted.

In September illuminated Aquatic Sports and Firework Displays are held in the evenings. The fact that these galas have drawn hundreds of people from all over the Country, thoroughly explains their immense popularity.

SUNBATHING.

To meet the ever increasing enthusiasm for Sun-Bathing, a place has been especially set aside for those who desire to cultivate sun-tan. Here one may loll in the sunshine in delightful langour, ecstatically drinking in the beautiful vista of the Firth of Forth.

Sun-Bathing at North Berwick is one of the most health-giving pursuits for the tired business man or woman, the air off the sea being so invigorating that a beneficial effect is felt almost immediately.

Adjoining the Swimming Pond there is the Esplanade, where the young people may indulge in Ball Games, more or less strenuous, in Bathing Dress, before going into the Pool.

Here is also the Concert Hall with Dancing Floor, where entertainments and Dances are held throughout the Season.
