MEMORANDUM OF ASSOCIATION

OF

THE SCOTTISH AMATEUR SWIMMING ASSOCIATION LIMITED

- 1 The Company's name is THE SCOTTISH AMATEUR SWIMMING ASSOCIATION LIMITED.
- 2 The Company's Registered Office is to be situated in Scotland.
- 3 The Company's objects are:-
 - 3.1 The principal object for which the Company is established is to deal with the day to day management of the affairs of The Scottish Amateur Swimming Association (the "SASA") as such right is delegated to and vested in the Company in terms of the SASA's Constitution and as such:
 - 3.1.1 To organise Scottish Championships and Scottish events for aquatic sports including, but not limited to, Swimming, Masters Swimming, Diving, Water Polo, Synchronised Swimming and Open Water Swimming.
 - 3.1.2 To hear and consider protests, made by any individual in respect of events organised by the Company or by any Club or District of the SASA and to make rulings on such protests.
 - 3.1.3 To appoint a National Enquiry Panel to hear complaints and a National Arbitration Panel to hear appeals in relation to any matters falling within the Company's jurisdiction.
 - 3.1.4 To act as and appoint the ultimate appeal body in respect of disciplinary matters and actions relating to and/or taken against members of the SASA by Districts or Clubs of the SASA and as such appeal body to impose such penalties, including, but not limited to, imposing fines, suspensions and expulsions from competing in Scottish Championships and Scottish events organised by the Company or local events organised by Clubs or Districts of the SASA on members of the SASA.
 - 3.1.5 To consider, approve, reject and register all applications for records in respect of aquatic sports.
 - 3.1.6 To promote, encourage, develop and manage the teaching, knowledge and practice of swimming, diving, open water swimming, water polo, synchronised swimming, and masters swimming.
 - 3.1.7 To formulate, publish and enforce uniform rules and regulations for the management and control of all Swimming, Masters Swimming, Diving, Open Water Swimming, Synchronised Swimming, and Water Polo Competitions and events, and other aquatics sports competitions held in Scotland by the Company or by any club affiliated to the SASA.
 - 3.1.8 To establish the standardisation of rules for all international and other competitions in the aquatic sports, and for the management of competitions through consultation with British Swimming.
 - 3.1.9 To be responsible in Scotland for enforcing doping control policies in the aquatic sports in accordance with British Swimming requirements.
 - 3.1.10 To promote competitions involving aquatic sports at local, regional, national, European, International and any other level.

- 3.1.11 To formulate and enforce a code of conduct and a code of ethics to regulate the activities of the members of the SASA when competing by reference to the rules of the International Olympics Committee (IOC), the International Paralympics Committee (IPC), FINA or LEN from time to time.
- 3.1.12 To oppose and to promote the opposition of the use of drugs in sport and to take all necessary steps to ensure that the members of SASA do not partake of any of the banned substances listed by the Federation Internationale de Natation.
- 3.2 To undertake and carry on any other business which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with any of the above specified objects, or calculated directly or indirectly to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights, and to conduct and carry on any part of the Company's business as a separate concern, and to employ in any such separate business any particular part of the Company's capital, and to keep separate capital and income accounts of any such separate part of the Company's business and so far as any separate part of the business is the business of an investment or trust company, or of a nature similar thereto, to receive and keep separate the dividends, income, profit, bonuses and advantages of every description from time to time payable or receivable in respect of the Company's investments, and to divide the excess of current receipts over current expenditure relating to such separate part without regard to any fixed capital that may be sunk or lost, or to the loss of capital in any other part of the Company's business.
- 3.3 To purchase, sell, feu, exchange, improve, grant securities over, rent, let on lease, hire, surrender, license, accept surrenders of, and otherwise acquire and/or deal with any land or interest in land and other property of any tenure or description, and to erect, pull down, repair, alter, develop, hold or otherwise deal with any land or buildings and adapt the same for the purposes of the Company's business.
- 3.4 To buy, sell, manufacture, repair, alter, improve, manipulate, prepare for market, let on hire and generally deal in all kinds of plant, machinery, apparatus, tools, utensils, materials, produce, substances, articles and things for the purpose of any of the businesses specified herein or likely to be required by customers or other persons having or about to have dealings with the Company.
- 3.5 To purchase or otherwise acquire all or any part of the business or assets of any person, firm or company carrying on or formed to carry on any business which the Company is authorised to carry on or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of the Company, and to pay cash, as the consideration for such purchase or acquisition and to undertake any liabilities or obligations relating to the property or business so purchased or acquired.
- 3.6 To sell, lease, exchange, surrender, or otherwise deal with the whole of the undertaking and assets of the Company, or any part thereof, for such consideration as the Company may think fit and to divide such part or parts, as may be determined by the Company, of the purchase price in cash, which may at any time be received by the Company on a sale or other dealing with the whole or part of its property, estate, effects and rights, or as the result of any other transaction of the Company, to deal with this as the Company may determine.
- 3.7 To amalgamate, enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interest, joint adventure, reciprocal concessions or co-operation with any persons or company carrying on or proposing to carry on any business within the objects of the Company and to take or otherwise acquire and hold shares or stock in, or securities of, and to subsidise or otherwise assist any such company, and to sell, hold, re-issue with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with such shares or securities.
- 3.8 To promote or form any other company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any part of the property and liabilities of the Company for the time being, or for any other purpose which may seem directly or indirectly calculated to benefit the Company, and to pay or contribute towards the preliminary expenses of any such company or companies, or provide the whole or part of the capital thereof.
- 3.9 To apply for and otherwise acquire any patents, brevets d'invention, concessions and the like conferring an exclusive or non-exclusive, or limited right to use any process or invention, or any secret or other information as to any invention which may seem calculated directly or indirectly to benefit the Company, and to work out, devise, develop, test, demonstrate, improve and perfect any such process or invention, and to use, exercise, develop, grant licences in respect of, or otherwise turn to account any such inventions, processes, brevets d'invention, licences, concessions and the like, and the property, rights and information so acquired.

- 3.10 To lend money to such persons, upon such terms and subject to such conditions as may be desirable.
- 3.11 To borrow or raise money or secure the payment of money or performance of obligations (whether by or of the Company or any other person) in such manner as the Directors shall think fit, and in particular by the granting of bonds, charges and rights in security and by the issue of debentures or debenture stock charged upon all or any of the Company's property both present and future, including its uncalled capital, and to re-issue any debentures at any time paid off.
- 3.12 To guarantee the payment of any bonds, mortgages, charges, obligations, interest, moneys or the performance of contracts or engagements of any other company or person, and to give indemnities and guarantees of all kinds.
- 3.13 To pay for any property, rights, privileges or concessions acquired or agreed to be acquired by the Company, and generally to satisfy any payment due by, or obligations of, the Company.
- 3.14 To draw, make, accept, endorse, negotiate, discount, buy, sell, deal in, execute and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, debentures, warrants, and other negotiable or transferable instruments, securities or documents.
- 3.15 To purchase, subscribe for, or otherwise acquire other interests in, or obligations of any other company or corporation, and to invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required for the purposes of the Company subject to such conditions as may seem expedient.
- 3.16 To remunerate any person or company for services rendered or to be rendered to the Company or of any company in which the Company may be interested or propose to be interested, or in or about the conduct of the business of the Company by cash payments or otherwise.
- 3.17 To pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses which the Company may lawfully pay relating or incidental to the formation, registration and advertising of or raising money for the Company and the issue of its capital, or for contributing to or assisting any company either issuing or purchasing with a view to issue all or any part of the Company's capital in connection with the advertising or offering of the same for sale or subscription.
- 3.18 To establish and maintain, or procure the establishment and maintenance of, any pension or superannuation funds (whether contributory or otherwise) for the benefit of, and to give or to procure the giving of donations, gratuities, pensions, allowances and emoluments to, any persons who are or were at any time in the employment or service of the Company, or any of its predecessors in business, or of any company which is a subsidiary of the Company or is allied to or associated with the Company or with any such subsidiary, or who may be or have been directors or officers of the Company, or of any such other company as aforesaid, and the wives, widows, families, relations and dependants of any such persons, and to establish, subsidise and subscribe to any institutions, associations, societies, clubs or funds calculated to be for the benefit of, or to advance the interests and well-being of the Company or of any other company as aforesaid, or of any such persons as aforesaid, and to make payments for or towards the insurance of any such persons as aforesaid, and to subscribe or guarantee money for charitable or benevolent objects, or for any exhibition or for any public, general or useful object and to do any of the matters aforesaid either alone or in conjunction with any such other company as aforesaid.
- 3.19 To remunerate any person or company rendering services to the Company, by cash payment or otherwise.
- 3.20 To distribute any of the assets of the Company among the members in specie or otherwise, but so that any redemption or purchase shall be in accordance with Part VIII of the Companies Act 1985 as amended or re-enacted and no distribution amounting to a reduction of capital may be made without the sanction of the Court when necessary.
- 3.21 To obtain any Provisional Order or Act of Parliament for enabling the Company to carry any of its objects into effect or for effecting any modifications of the Company's constitution or for any other purpose which may seem expedient, and to oppose any proceedings or applications which may seem likely directly or indirectly to prejudice the Company's interests.

- 3.22 To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them in any part of the world, and either as principals, agents, contractors, trustees or otherwise and either alone or in conjunction with others and either by or through agents, sub-contractors, trustees or otherwise.

AND IT IS HEREBY DECLARED THAT:-

- 3.22.1 The word "company" in this clause, except where used in reference to the Company, shall be deemed to include any partnership, firm or other body of persons, whether corporate or unincorporate, and whether domiciled in the United Kingdom or elsewhere.
- 3.22.2 In this clause, words denoting the singular number only shall include the plural and vice versa.
- 3.22.3 The objects specified in each of the paragraphs of this clause shall be regarded as independent objects, and accordingly shall not be limited or restricted (except where otherwise expressed in such paragraphs) by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph or the name of the Company, but may be carried out in as full and ample a manner and construed in as wide a sense as if each of the said paragraphs defined the objects of a separate and distinct company.
- 4 The income and property of the Company whensoever derived shall be applied solely towards the promotion of the objects of the Company as set forth in this Memorandum of Association and no portion thereof shall be paid or transferred directly or indirectly by way of dividend, gift, bonus or otherwise howsoever by way of profit to the Members, officers or servants of the Company.
- PROVIDED that nothing herein shall prevent
- 4.1 The payment in good faith of reasonable and proper remuneration to any Member, officer, or servant of the Company in return for any services actually rendered to the Company, or outlays properly incurred on its behalf.
- 4.2 The payment in good faith to any Member, officer, or servant of the Company including members of its Board of Directors of out of pocket expenses incurred by him in or about the performance of his duties.
- 4.3 A reasonable and proper rent for premises let by any Member of the Company or its Board of Directors.
- 5 The liability of the Members is limited.
- 6 Every Member of the Company undertakes to contribute to the assets of the Company in the event of the same being wound up while he is a Member, or within one year after he ceases to be a Member, for payment of the debts and liabilities of the Company contracted before he ceased to be a Member and of the costs, charges, and expenses of winding up, and for the adjustment of the rights of the contributors among themselves, such amount as may be required not exceeding £1.
- 7 If upon the winding up or dissolution of the Company there remains after the satisfaction of all its debts and liabilities any property whatsoever the same shall not be paid to or distributed among the Members of the Company but shall be given or transferred to some other institution or institutions having objects similar to the objects of the Company and which shall prohibit the distribution of its or their income or property among its or their members to an extent at least as great as imposed on the Company under or by virtue of Clause 4 hereof such charitable institution or institutions to be determined by the Members of the Company at or before the time of dissolution and if and so far as effect cannot be given to such provision then to some other charitable object.

13 Directors' Expenses

13.1.1 The Directors (including alternate Directors) may be repaid all travelling, hotel and other expenses properly incurred by them in attending and returning from meetings of the Directors or any committee of the Directors or general meetings of the Company or in connection with the business of the Company.

13.1.2 Any Director who, being so requested by the Directors, performs special or extraordinary services on behalf of the Company, or who, for the purpose of discharging his duties, travels to or resides in any place other than that in which he usually resides may be paid such extra remuneration (whether by way of lump sum, commission or participation in profits or otherwise) as the Directors may determine.

14 Directors' Appointments and Interests

14.1 Subject to the provisions of the Act, the Directors may appoint one or more of their number to the office of managing Director or to any other executive office under the Company and may enter into an agreement or arrangement with any Director for his employment by the company or for the provision by him of any services outside the scope of the ordinary duties of a Director. Any such appointment, agreement or arrangement may be made upon such terms as the Directors determine and they may remunerate any such Director for his services as they think fit. Any appointment of a Director to an executive office shall terminate if he ceases to be a Director but without prejudice to any claim to damages for breach of the contract of service between the Director and the Company.

14.1.1 Subject to the provisions of the Act, and provided that he has disclosed to the Directors the nature and extent of any material interest of his, a Director notwithstanding his office:-

14.2.1 may be a party to, or otherwise interested in, any transaction or arrangement with the company or in which the Company is otherwise interested;

14.2.2 may be a Director or other officer of, or employed by, or a party to any transaction or arrangement with, or otherwise interested in, any body corporate promoted by the Company or in which the Company is otherwise interested; and

14.2.3 shall not, by reason of his office, be accountable to the company for any benefit which he derives from any such office or employment or from any such transaction or arrangement or from any interest in any such body corporate and no such transaction or arrangement shall be liable to be avoided on the ground of any such interest or benefit.

14.2 For the purposes of Article 14.2:-

- 14.3.1 a general notice given to the Directors that a Director is to be regarded as having an interest of the nature and extent specified in the notice in any transaction or arrangement in which a specified person or class of persons is interested shall be deemed to be a disclosure that the Director has an interest in any such transaction of the nature and extent so specified; and
- 14.3.2 an interest of which a Director has no knowledge and of which it is unreasonable to expect him to have knowledge shall not be treated as an interest of his.

15 Proceedings of Directors

- 15.1 Subject to the provisions of the Articles, the Directors may regulate their proceeding as they think fit provided that all such procedures shall comply with the Company Rules. If there shall be any conflict between the provisions of the Company Rules and the provisions of these Articles the provisions of the Company Rules shall prevail over the Articles. It shall not be necessary to give notice of a meeting to a Director who is absent from the United Kingdom. Questions arising at a meeting shall be decided by a majority of votes. In the case of an equality of votes, the chairman shall have a second or casting vote on a result on which requires a decision (choice) to be made for the continued good governance of the Company.
- 15.2 The quorum for the transaction of the business of the Directors shall be five.
- 15.3 The continuing Directors or a sole continuing Director may act notwithstanding any vacancies in their number, but, if the number of Directors is less than the number fixed as the quorum, the continuing Directors or Director may act only for the purpose of filling vacancies or of calling a general meeting.
- 15.4 If the Company Chairperson is unwilling to preside or is not present within 5 minutes after the time appointed for the meeting, the Directors present may appoint one of their members to be Chairman of the meeting.
- 15.5 All acts done by a meeting of Directors, or of a committee of Directors, or by a person acting as a Director shall, notwithstanding that it be afterwards discovered that there was a defect in the appointment of any Director or that any of them were disqualified from holding office, or had vacated office, or were not entitled to vote, be as valid as if every such person had been duly appointed and was qualified and had continued to be a Director and had been entitled to vote.
- 15.6 A resolution in writing signed by all the Directors entitled to receive notice of a meeting of Directors or of a committee of Directors shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a meeting of Directors or (as the case may be) a committee of Directors duly convened and held and may consist of several documents in the like form each signed by one or more Directors;
- 15.7 A Director shall not be entitled to vote in respect of any contract or arrangement that he may be interested therein and he may be counted in the quorum at any meeting of the Directors at which any such contract or proposed contract or arrangement shall come before the meeting for consideration.
- 15.8 A resolution of which any Director has signified his approval by letter, electronic communication, cable, telex, telegram or facsimile message shall be as valid and effectual as a resolution in writing signed by that Director.
- 15.9 Secretary
- 16.1 Subject to the provisions of the Act, the secretary shall be appointed by the Company for such term, at such remuneration and upon such conditions as they may think fit; and any secretary so appointed may be removed by the Company.

17 Minutes

- 17.1 The Directors shall cause minutes to be made in books kept for the purpose:-
- 17.1.1 of all appointments of officers made by the Directors; and
 - 17.1.2 of all proceedings at meetings of the Company and of the Directors, and of committees of Directors, including the names of the Directors present at each such meeting.

18 Accounts

- 18.1 The Council of the Member as defined in the Member's constitution shall have the exclusive right of inspecting any accounting records or other book or documents of the Company upon providing reasonable notice to the Company in addition to any right conferred by statute or authorised by the Directors or by ordinary resolution of the Company.

19 Notices

- 19.1 Any notice to be given to or by any person pursuant to the Articles (other than a notice calling a meeting of the Directors) shall be in writing or shall be given using electronic communications to an address for the time being notified for that purpose to the person giving the notice.
- 19.2 In this Article, "address", in relation to electronic communications, includes any number or address used for the purpose of such communication.
- 19.3 The Company may give any notice to the Member either by sending it by post in a prepaid envelope addressed to the member at his registered address or by leaving it at that address or by giving it using electronic communications to an address for the time being notified to the Company by the member.
- 19.4 A member present at any meeting of the Company shall be deemed to have received notice of the meeting and, where requisite, of the purposes for which it was called.
- 19.5 Proof that an envelope containing a notice was properly addressed, prepaid and posted shall be conclusive evidence that the notice was given. Proof that notice contained in an electronic communication was sent in accordance with guidance issued by the Institute of Chartered Secretaries and Administrators shall be conclusive evidence that the notice was given. A notice shall be deemed to be given at the expiration of 48 hours after the envelope containing it was posted or, in the case of a notice contained in an electronic communication, at the expiration of 48 hours after it was sent.

20 Indemnity

- 20.1 Subject to the provisions of the Act but without prejudice to any indemnity which may otherwise be available, every Director, managing Director, auditor, secretary or other officer of the Company shall be entitled to be indemnified by and out of the assets of the Company against:-
- 20.1.1 all charges, losses, expenses and liabilities incurred by him in the execution and discharge of his duties or in relation thereto; and
 - 20.1.2 any liability incurred by him in:-
 - 20.1.2.1 defending any proceedings, whether civil or criminal, in which judgement is not given against him; or
 - 20.1.2.2 in connection with any application in which relief is granted to him by the Court from liability for negligence, breach of duty or breach of trust in relation to the affairs of the Company.
- 20.2 The Company may purchase and maintain for any officer or auditor of the Company insurance against any liability which by virtue of any rule of law would otherwise attach to him in respect of any negligence, default, breach of duty or breach of trust of which he may be guilty in relation to the Company.
